Can you please let me know the cut off date

Sure — I can help 👍

Cut-off date for what exactly?

Please tell me:

- Exam / admission / scheme / course / result, or
- School board, college, government notification, etc.

Once you specify the context, I'll give you the exact cut-off date (and related details if needed).

For ChatGPT

For ChatGPT, the knowledge cut-off date is:

Ask ChatGPT

That means:

 August 2025

That means:

- I'm trained on information available up to August 2025.
- I may not automatically know events, updates, exams, or news after that date, unless I check the web in real time.
- For recent or time-sensitive information, I can still help by searching the web when needed.

If you're asking this for exam preparation, project work, or current affairs, tell me the purpose and I'll guide you accordingly 😊

Here's the most reliable knowledge cutoff

ChatGPT

Here's the most reliable knowledge cutoff date information available for Qwen (通义千问) AI models:

General Public Qwen Models

- Qwen (base/public models) have training data up to October 2024 — meaning they don't have knowledge of events or facts after that date unless updated later. LinkedIn

Other Notes

- Some community tests and reports suggest parts of Qwen 3 variants seem to behave as if their knowledge extends around late 2024 (~ October) as well. CSDN Blog
- An unofficial source claimed Qwen might have data through December 2024, but this is not officially confirmed. world.hey.com

Could you please let me know the cut off date of Qwen

Qwen3-Max

My training data cutoff date is October 2024. This means I have been trained on data and information up to that point and may not be aware of events that occurred afterward. If you have any questions or need assistance, feel free to let me know!

Could you please let me know the cut off date of Deepseek

My knowledge cutoff is July 2024.

However, it's important to note that I don't have real-time information or internet browsing capabilities unless you explicitly enable the web search function during our conversation. So for current events or information after July 2024, you'll need to activate the web search feature to get the most up-to-date information.
